

The claim is :

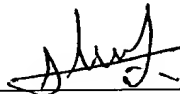

I claim the right of the generalization of the theories explained in the invention and their Applications.

The two theories are :

(1) If you have two sources of temperature you can create a third source higher than the two by using these two sources.

(2) If you have two sources of pressure you can create a third source higher than the two by using these two sources.

Hanna Albert Awad

Date 6/21/2002